INDEX TO VOL. LXXVIII

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ACT

ACTIVE Service, On: Leaves from a Field Note-Book, 303–324, 767–791, 1287–1318
Adriatic, The Problem of the, 1319–1334
African natives, German atrocities among, 44–51
Alcohol: What it does to us and what we ought to do with it, 58–74
Alcoholism and its effects on women and children, 1396–1416
Alford (Capt.), Russia's Strength and her Certainty of Ultimate Victory, 435–443
Ali (A. Yusuf), German Missionaries in India, 280–290
America, How she became a Nation in Arms, 507–540
American commerce and German submarines, 247–270
American Democrats, Mr. Bryan, and the War, 90–102
American neutrality and sympathy for the Allies, 1263–1271
Anglo-American Tribunal, An, 495–499
Anglo-French Relations, A French View of, 997–1011
Aniline Dye Scheme, The Future of the, 194–203
Animals, Inherited Variation in, 1124–1144
Annunzio (Gabriele d'), The Poetry of, 892–906
Army Veterinary Corps and horses in modern war, 325–343
Ashwell (Lena), With Captains Courageous 'Somewhere in France,' 344–352
Austria, The Real, and her Relations with Germany, 1044–1056

BAILEY (W. F.), Belgrade, the Gateway to the East, 1335–1344
Balkans, A Definite Policy in the, 541–547
Balkans, The Crisis in the, 1021–1043
Balkans, War in the, the Serbian soldier, 1345–1353

BRI

Barclay (Sir Thomas), The Sands of Fate—Berlin, July 24 to 31, 1914, 444–476
Barker (J. Ellis Barker), The Secret of Germany's Strength, 10–43; How America became a Nation in Arms, 507–540; Britain's War Finance and Economic Future, 1233–1262
Barrington (Viscountess), Soldiers' and Sailors' Families, 582–589
Bathurst (Capt. Charles), The Land Settlement of Ex-Service Men, 1097–1113
Battine (Capt. Cecil), The Powers that Be, 1213–1224
Belgian refugees, Work for, 837–850
Belgique Latine, L'Avenir de la, 291–302
Belgrade, The Gateway to the East, 1335–1344
Benedictine nuns, English, at Ghent, 1430–1448
Bennett (Capt. E. N.), Some Experiences in Serbia, 548–562
Berthaut (General), The Morale of the French Soldier, 1354–1360
Biblical criticism, German dogmatism, and archæological research, 358–369
Birmingham (George A.), see Hannay (Canon)
Blake (Sir Henry), Compulsory Service as a Principle of the Constitution, 808–813
Bland (J. O. P.), Japanese Policy in China, 1198–1212
Blount (John), prisoner of war, and his romance, 117–136, 631–650
Botha (General): a Personal Impression, 600–616
Bourget (Paul), his book on the meaning of Death, 1361–1377
Bradley (Rose M.), The Romance of a Détenu, 117–136, 631–650
Britain's War Finance and Economic Future, 1233–1262
British nationality and status of aliens, 729–754
British prisoners in a German internment camp, 1272–1286

BRO

Brooks (Sydney), Mr. Bryan, 90–102; Mr. Lloyd George and the War, 972–984
Brown (F. H.), India's Rally to the Imperial Cause, 183–193
Brown (Lilian Rowland), Waterloo in Romance, 103–116
Brunton (Sir Lauder), Alcohol: what it does to us and what we ought to do with it, 58–74
Bryan (Mr.), 90–102
Bulgaria, Greece, and Serbia, 541–547, 1031–1043
Bury (Bishop), The Grand Duchess Elizabeth and her New Order, 664–670

CAPTAINS Courageous, With — 'Somewhere in France,' 344–353
Carlisle (Bishop of), Monopoly in Religion, 1071–1086
Castlereagh (Lord), Talleyrand, and European redistribution, 52–57
Catholic Church and German atrocities, 851–861, 862–869
Centenary of Waterloo and Entente Cordiale, 103–116
Chance Conversation, A, in 1905, 1449–1457
Child-life and the War, 137–150
China, Japanese Policy in, 1198–1212
Christmas symposium—God and the War, 617–630
Church's Opportunity, The, 222–228
'Cinderella of the Service, The,' 325–343
Clark (Prof. E. C.), Income-Tax and National Service, 83–85
Clergy, The Array of the, in 1415, 86–89
Coal Industry, The, under War Conditions, 413–428
Coalition Government and its critics, 271–279
Compulsory military service and its effects on trade, 75–82
Compulsory Service as a Principle of the Constitution, 808–813
Concert of Europe, The, 918–935
Concert parties at the Front, 344–352
Conscription and American Civil War, 507–540
Cotton as Contraband of War, 500–506
Crammond (Edgar), 'High Finance' and the Danger of Premature Peace, 477–494
Crisis in the Balkans, 1041–1043
Criticism and the National Government, 271–279
Cromer (Earl of), The Teaching of Patriotism, 1012–1020
Cuchulain, The Sickbed of, 159–182, 370–392
Currency Loan, Why not a? 1225–1232

FRE

DARK Hosts, When they are Vanquished, 1087–1096
Davray (Henry D.), A French View of Anglo-French Relations, 997–1011
Deane (Canon A. C.), The Church's Opportunity, 222–228
Death Bills, 1430–1448
Death, The Meaning of, 1361–1377
Depression, patriotism, and patience, 353–357
Détenu, The Romance of a, 117–136, 631–650
Dewar (George A. B.), National Service: An Individualist's Plea for Obligatory Service, 75–82
Dicey (Prof. A. V.), Wordsworth and the Revolution, 870–891
Dimnet (Abbé Ernest), Madame de Staël in the Light of Current Events, 563–581
Diseases conveyed by insects, 151–158
Drink, Working-Women and, 1378–1395
Drunken motherhood and its effects on childhood, 1378–1395

EASTERN and Western Churches and the War, 862–869
East, The Gateway to the, Belgrade before the War, 1335–1344
Economic expansion after the War, 1233–1262
Editors, Under Four, 1161–1173
Education and the War, 948–956
Elizabeth (The Grand Duchess) and the New Order, 664–670
Enemies and Allies, Our Unseen, 907–917
Enemy aliens in India, traders and missionaries, 280–290
England, The Old, and the New, 218–221
English liberty, German Kultur, and Mme. de Staël, 563–581
English prisoner's romance in Napoleon's time, 117–136, 631–650
Entente Cordiale and English co-operation with France, 997–1011
European Congress, Problems for a, 1458–1470
Ex-Service Men, The Land Settlement of, 1097–1113

FAIRHOLME (E. G.), 'The Cinderella of the Service,' 325–343
Female employment during and after the War, 1396–1416
France, Battlefields in, notes of visit to, 303–324, 767–791
Frederick the Great and achievements of Prussia, 10–43

FRE

Freedom of the sea and belligerent rights, 247–270
French Revolution and Wordsworth's hopes for France, 870–891
French Soldier, The Morale of the, 1354–1360
Frewen (Moreton), Memories of Melton Mowbray, 1417–1429
Frodsham (Bishop), Public Economy and National Education, 948–956
Frontier fortresses, defensive works, lessons of the War, 936–947

GASCOYNE, Cecil (Lord William), The Old England and the New: Great Changes in the World of Thought, 218–221
George (Mr. Lloyd) and the War, 972–984
German and English ideals, 957–971
German atrocities and day of retribution, 1–9; and the Pope, 851–861
German Biblical criticism and Kultur, 358–369
German General Staff and our method of conducting war, 1213–1224
German hostility to England, An Austrian's view of, 1449–1457
German influence in Austria, 1044–1056
German Missionaries in India, 280–290
German war methods and how to meet them, 671–690
Germany, Constantinople, and Serbia, 1021–1030
Germany from an Internment Camp, 1272–1286
Germany's Latest Adventure, 1031–1040
Germany's Strength, The Secret of, 10–43
Germany's Treatment of Native Races—and Britain's Duty, 44–51
Germany's world-ramifications and propaganda, 477–494
Ghent, Benedictine nuns at, Obituary records of, 1430–1448
God and Humanity: a Symposium, 617–630
Gordon (J. W.), The Future of the Aniline Dye Scheme, 194–203
Grain Trade, War Time in the, 651–663
Greece, Serbia, Bulgaria, and the War, 541–547
Grundy (G. B.), A Chance Conversation in 1905, 1449–1457
Guyot (Yves), The Great Mistake of Talleyrand and Lord Castlereagh, 52–57

HANNAN (Rev. Thomas), One of War's Warnings—'Take Care of the Child,' 137–150

JAP

Hannay (Canon), Ireland and the War, 393–402
Harris (John H.), Germany's Treatment of Native Races—and Britain's Duty, 44–51
Harrison (Frederic), Problems for a European Congress, 1458–1470
Heredity and modifications in animals, 1124–1144
'High Finance' and the Danger of Premature Peace, 477–494
Hobson (John A.), The War Loan as an Instrument of Economy, 691–701
Holdich (Col. Sir Thomas), Military Aspects of a Frontier, 936–947
Holmes (Edmond G. A.), Ideals of Life and Education—German and English, 957–971
Holy Alliance and Confederation of European Powers, 918–935
Horses in modern war, 325–343
Hubback (John H.), War Time in the Grain Trade, 651–663
Humanism, Internationalism, and training of youthful patriots, 1012–1020
Hunting reminiscences at Melton Mowbray, 1417–1429
Hyndman (H. M.), Thrift no Panacea without Increased Production, 714–728

INCOME TAX and its limitations 702–713
Income Tax and National Service, 83–85
India, German Missionaries in, 280–290
India's Rally to the Imperial Cause, 183–193
Industrial Factor in the War, The, 229–246
Industry, Women and the Reconstruction of, 1396–1416
Infant mortality, efforts at prevention, 137–150
Insects, The War against, 151–158
International prize court and contraband cargoes, 495–499
Invasion, clergy and monks liable for service for home defence, 86–89
Ireland and the War, 393–402
Irish legend and Ireland's future, 159–182, 370–392
Italian Intervention, Scenes from the Drama of, 403–412
Italian literature, D'Annunzio's works, 892–906
Italy, Austria, and the Southern Slavs, 1319–1334

JAPANESE Policy in China, 1198–1212

JEN

Jennings (H. J.), The Third War Budget, 755–766; Why not a Currency Loan? 1225–1232
Johnston (Charles), The Rôle of the Squaw, 1263–1271
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), The Next War: Man versus Insects, 151–158; God and Humanity—a Symposium, 617–630
Jones (Roderick), General Botha, 600–616; General Smuts, 1057–1070

KILLANIN (Lord), The Sickbed of Cuchulain, 159–182, 370–392
Kinloch-Cooke (Sir Clement), The National Register and After, 792–807; Women and the Reconstruction of Industry, 1396–1416
Knox (Major-General Sir William G.), A Year of War in the Western Theatre, 671–690
Kropotkin (Prince), Inherited Variation in Animals, 1124–1144

LANDI (Countess Zanardi), The Real Austria, and her Relations with Germany, 1044–1056
Lathbury (D. C.), Criticism and the National Government, 271–279
Life and Education, German and English Ideals of, 957–971
Ligeance of the King, The, 729–754
Lilly (W. S.), 'To Avenge,' 1–9; The Meaning of Death, 1361–1377

MACDONALL (Sir John), An Anglo-American Tribunal, 495–499
Machray (Robert), Resolute Russia, 814–836
Manchuria and Japanese expansion, 1198–1212
Macnaughtan (Miss S.), The Care of Wounded, 1186–1187
Mallock (W. H.), The Limits of Super-Taxation, 702–713
Marriott (J. A. R.), The Concert of Europe, 918–935; The Problem of the Adriatic, 1319–1334
Martin (Anna), Working-Women and Drink, 1378–1395
Meaning of Death, The, 1361–1377
Medical Woman, Training, Difficulties, and Usefulness of the, 1174–1185
Mediterranean balance of power, rival claims on the Adriatic, 1319–1334
Melton Mowbray, Memories of, 1417–1429
Milan and the War, Interventionists and Neutralists, 403–412
Military Aspects of a Frontier, 936–947

PEA

Military service as alternative to income-tax, 83–85
Military service, National, compulsory or voluntary, 985–996
Military training, French soldiers compared with German, 1354–1360
Miners, coal-owners and regulation of prices, 413–428
Morgan (Prof. J. H.), On Active Service: Leaves from a Field Note-Book, 303–324, 767–791, 1287–1318
Moyes (Monsignor Canon), The Pope and the German Atrocities, 851–861
Munitions workshops and war, 229–246

NATIONAL defence and the clergy in 1415, 86–89
National Education, Public Economy and, 948–956
National finance, War expenditure, and State borrowing, 691–701
National Register, The, and After, 792–807
National Relief Fund and Government control, 1114–1123
National Relief Funds and separation allowances, 582–599
National reorganisation of agriculture and industries, 714–728
National Service, 75–82, 792–813
National Service, Income Tax and, 83–85
Nationalists, Orangemen, and Irish loyalty, 393–402
Nationality and naturalisation, 729–754
Neutral Merchant, The, and the 'Freedom of the Sea,' 247–270
Neutrals, contraband and international courts, 495–506
New Testament and German criticism, 358–369
Next War, The: Man versus Insects, 151–158

OBLIGATORY Service, An Individualist's Plea for, 75–82
Orthodoxy, Episcopacy, and monopolising of truth, 1071–1086
Ozanne (James W.), Germany's Latest Adventure, 1031–1040

'PALL Mall Gazette' and its Editors, 1161–1173
Parliamentary Government and its difficulties in war, 1213–1224
Patriotism, The Teaching of, 1012–1020
Patriotism versus love, an Anglo-French romance, 117–136, 631–650
Peace Congress and European problems, 1458–1470

PEA

Peace propaganda and German finance, 477–494
Peasant Songs of Russia, The, 1145–1160
Perkin (Professor), aniline dyes and Patent Laws, 194–203
Pessimism, The Anatomy of, 353–357
Piggott (Sir Francis), The Neutral Merchant and the 'Freedom of the Sea,' 247–270; Cotton as Contraband of War, 500–506; The 'Ligeance of the King,' 729–754
Pope, The, and the German Atrocities, 851–861; The Pope, Orthodoxy, and the Allies, 862–869
Potsdam on the eve of War, 444–476
Powers that Be, The, 1213–1224
Premature Peace, 'High Finance' and the Danger of, 477–494
Prisoner of war in France a hundred years ago, 117–136, 631–650
Prussia, from Frederick the Great to William the Second, 10–43
Public Economy and National Education, 948–956

RAMSAY (Sir William) and New Testament criticism, 358–369
Rè (Arundel del), The Poetry of Gabriele d'Annunzio, 892–906
Red Cross work in Serbia, 548–562
Refugees, On the Providing of Work for, 837–850
Registration, voluntary enlistment, and compulsion, 792–807
Religion, Monopoly in, 1071–1086
Religious thought as affected by war, 218–228
Renwick (W. H.), The Coal Industry under War Conditions, 413–428
Reprisals, A Russian View of, 429–434
Resolute Russia, 814–836
Roberts (A. Carson), True National Service, 985–996
Ruhleben internment camp, British prisoners, at, 1272–1286
Russian Convent of St. Martha and St. Mary and Grand Duchess Elizabeth, 664–690
Russian peasant songs, 1145–1160
Russian retreats and recoveries, 814–836
Russian View of Reprisals, A, 429–434
Russia's Strength and her Certainty of Ultimate Victory, 435–443

ST. MARTHA and St. Mary, The new Russian Order of, 664–670
Samuel (Herbert), Government Measures on War Distress, 1114–1123
Sands of Fate, The—Berlin, July 24 to 31, 1914, 444–476

TEU

Satanic hypothesis of German frightfulness, 1087–1096
Saxony, Prussia, and Vienna Congress of 1814, 52–57
Scharlieb (Dr. Mary), The Medical Woman, 1174–1185
Secession War in America and conscription, 507–540
Sellers (Edith), On the Providing of Work for Refugees, 837–850
Serbia, German and Bulgarian attack upon, 1031–1040
Serbia, Some Recent Experiences in, 548–562
Serbia, The Strategical Significance of, 1021–1030
Serbia, Yesterday and To-day, 1335–1353
Serbian Soldier in Action, The, 1345–1353
Shadwell (Dr. Arthur), The Industrial Factor in the War, 229–246
Sharpe (Sir Alfred), A Definite Policy in the Balkans, 541–547; The Crisis in the Balkans, 1041–1043
Sheridan (R. B. C.), The Pope, Orthodoxy, and the Allies, 862–869
Simpson (H. B.), Teutons and the New Testament, 358–369
Sinnett (A. P.), Our Unseen Enemies and Allies, 907–917; When the Dark Hosts are Vanquished, 1087–1096
Slavonic folk songs and legends of Russia, 1145–1160
Smuts (General), a Personal Impression, 1057–1070
Soldiers and sailors as land settlers and food-producers, 1097–1113
Soldiers' and Sailors' Families, 582–599
South African loyalty: General Botha, 600–616; General Smuts, 1057–1070
Spiritual allies and foes, 907–917, 1087–1096
Squaw, The Rôle of the, Some Reflections by an American, 1263–1271
Staël (Mme. de) in the Light of Current Events, 563–581
Stebbing (E. P.), The Effect of Six Months' War on the Timber Supplies, 204–217
Stimulants, the effects of alcohol, 58–74
Super-Taxation, The Limits of, 702–713
Surgery and treatment of wounded formerly and now, 1186–1197

TALLEYRAND and Lord Castlereagh, The Great Mistake of, 52–57
Taxation under the Third War Budget, 755–766
Teutons and the New Testament, 358–369

THO

Thought, Great Changes in the World of, 218–221
Thrift no Panacea without Increased Production, 714–728
Timber Supplies, The Effect of Six Months' War on the, 204–217
'To Avenge,' 1–9
Tower (Charles), Scenes from the Drama of Italian Intervention, 403–412
Treasury Notes, currency vouchers, and payment of wages in paper, 1225–1232
Treaty of Paris and Vienna Congress, 52–57
True National Service, 985–996

UNEMPLOYMENT, Government relief, and shortage of labour, 1114–1123
United States, Our Relations with the, 495–506

VATICAN, The, and the War, 851–869
Vienna Congress of 1814–15, lessons for future Peace Congress, 1458–1470
Voluntary enlistment, feudal tenure, and compulsory service, 808–813

WAGE-EARNERS and War Loans, 1225–1232
Walbrook (H. M.), Under Four Editors, 1161–1173
Walloons, Flemings, and future of Latin Belgium, 291–302
War and overruling Providence, 617–630
War and timber supplies, 204–217
War Budget, The Third, 755–766
War Distress, Government Measures on, 1114–1123
War expenditure, National Debt, and need of thrift, 1233–1262
War in Eastern theatre, Russian resistance, 814–836
War in the Western Theatre, A Year of, 671–690
War, its effect on English thought and religious life, 218–228

ZUP

War Loan, The, as an Instrument of Economy, 691–701
War, Mr. Lloyd George and the, 972–984
War, The, and Indian fidelity to the Empire, 183–193
War, The Cost of, 691–728
War work and female labour, 1396–1416
War-strength and resources of Russia, 435–443
War's Warnings, One of—'Take Care of the Child,' 137–150
War Time in the Grain Trade, 651–663
War-time scenes between trenches and Base, 303–324, 767–791
War victims and mitigation of suffering, 1186–1197
Ward (Wilfrid), Death Bills, 1430–1448
Waterloo in Romance, 103–116
Weerdt (Raymond Colleye de), L'Avenir de la Belgique Latine, 291–302
Wells (Dean of), The Array of the Clergy in 1415, 86–89
Wheat imports and war risks, 651–663
Wolkoff-Mouromtzoff (Alexandre), A Russian View of Reprisals, 429–434
Women and the Reconstruction of Industry, 1396–1416
Women doctors and war work, 1174–1185
Wood supply, the War, and forestry, 204–217
Wordsworth on the Revolution, 870–891
Working-Women and Drink, 1378–1395
Wounded, The Care of, 1186–1197
Wright (C. Hagberg), The Peasant Songs of Russia, 1145–1160

YOUNG (E. Hilton), The Serbian Soldier in Action, 1345–1353
Yoxall (Sir James), The Anatomy of Pessimism, 353–357

ZEPPELIN raids and retaliation, 429–434
Zupanic (Dr. Niko), The Strategical Significance of Serbia, 1021–1030

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., LONDON
COLCHESTER AND ETON